

Meitheal

Feminist Mission Statement

Feminism recognises the unequal position of women and men in society.

As a result of this inequality, women have a particular and often shared view and experience.

Meitheal strives to reflect on and analyse the consequences of women's inequality in personal, community, institutional and societal terms.

We have a particular focus on working to raise awareness and effect change in areas in which women experience inequality.